

What does technology mean? Initially, technology change people live to better way and helps them to thinks different about the world and how it works, scientist research about technology and people improvements and evolution for technology changes the whole world, although the technology growth and evolution people found pros and cons in our technology, now we were go to shown some of this pros and cons, the pros of technology are easy communication that made a whole world in the same place, improved and changed the education into the better way such as at 2019 (corona virus year) helped students to complete their educate and some of them graduated from high school and college, achieve daily life tasks by using artificial intelligence to assistance them by giving new ideas for best way to do their daily life tasks, in our medicine by publish and produce new technology such as robotic surgery and telemedicine assistance doctors to perform and provide to patient a better care and save their life for young, adult, and elder people, in addition to helping employment and collages to delivery their work before deadline for their project or files to the chief executive officer. All of these pros offered and associated by the new technology for humans.