

Go green is a step to conserve our nature and lead eco-friendly life. Few simple steps include reducing our waste, reusing a product before recycling it, planting more trees, switching off lights, and many more steps. This step helps to reduce the waste and pollution. A clean and green environment always calms our minds and reduce stress.