Go green is a step to conserve our nature and lead eco-friendly life.Few simple steps include reducing our waste, reusing a product before recycling it, planting more trees, switching off lights, and many more steps.This step helps to reduce the waste and pollution.A clean and green environment always calms our minds and reduce stress.