

* Fairness: A person's age shouldn't be the only factor in treatment decisions. More important considerations may be made in a fairer system.