The text defines several linguistic terms: * Wernicke’s Aphasia: Fluent, meaningless speech; severe comprehension loss from Wernicke’s area. * Anomic Aphasia: Word retrieval difficulty; grammar/comprehension intact. * Conduction Aphasia: Impaired repetition; preserved comprehension, production. * Alexia: Reading disorder; cannot recognize written words despite intact vision. * Agraphia: Writing ability loss due to brain damage. * Language Modality: Four basic uses: speaking, listening, reading, writing. * Language Disorder: Impairment in language comprehension or production. * Error Analysis: Systematic study of learner errors to understand language learning. * Contrastive Analysis: Compares languages to predict learning difficulties. * Interlanguage: Evolving linguistic system of language learners.

Summarized by © lakhasly.com