

* Links surrounding window themes and frames the doors.* The connections between walls and foundations, between walls in building entrances, between structural walls and floors or on building roofs, and between walls, ceilings or wall panels.