College is expensive especially if you live away from home.many students go into great debt to pay for Academic education and living expenses and years of higher learning aren't worth the cost not all students learn enough from their studies for a good life after college few get high-paying jobs or make a lot of money in their areas of study or private business some people are not good at or interested in academic life so they waste their time on campus they're not working so they lose money during that time.Valuable go to college.And there are many negative reasons not to.