

Antioxidants are compounds that inhibit oxidation, a chemical reaction that can produce free radicals. Secondary Antioxidants (Peroxide Decomposers): They prevent the formation of harmful peroxides. Primary Antioxidants (Radical Scavengers): These directly neutralize free radicals.?