I Accountability. This involves defining the roles and duties of the directors and establishing an adequate monitoring process. The law also requires larger companies to have their annual financial statements independently audited.
Summarized by © lakhasly.com