

The old computer was huge, taking up an entire room. The modern computer is very fast, as it can perform mathematical operations in a short time. While the modern computer is cheaper, Whereas in terms of energy, the old computer consumed a large amount of energy..