

The benefit of ICU level of care for patients with DKA rather than regular medical/surgical wards is not well established for patients with mild-to-moderate DKA. Many studies suggest the utilization of the ED or the regular (medical/surgical) wards in the management of these patients.