

50% Soil: Regular soil provides essential nutrients to plants and helps support roots. 20% Perlite: Perlite is an extremely light material used to improve soil aeration and increase water drainage, preventing excess moisture buildup that can lead to root rot. 30% Peat Moss: Peat moss is an organic material that helps improve soil water retention and makes it softer and lighter.