

Social and economic inequalities are to satisfy two conditions: firstly, they are to be attached to positions and offices open to all under conditions of fair equality of opportunity; and secondly, they are to be to the greatest expected benefit of the least advantaged members of society.