

Hypercementosis is an abnormal thickening of cementum. The excessive deposition is circumscribed and surrounds the root like a cuff. It is associated with hypophosphatasia (7.17, 7.19, 7.20).