

Abu Dhabi Police's Security Media Department focuses on professional communication. My internship aimed to apply graphic design skills, improve technical proficiency (Adobe Illustrator), learn branding guidelines, and understand government media strategies. Rotating through six department branches, I gained experience in various tasks, from administrative support to social media management and design projects (banners, press release, children's magazine feature), developing diverse skills and understanding collaborative workflows.