

Coordinate the introduction of all generic clinical information systems supplied reports and integrate into the hospital report library.

- o Develop and maintain technical expertise on the use of the specific system in the assigned area.
- o Design, develop and maintain customer-requested changes to the system supplied generic reports including hospital-requested new reports not supplied by the system.

Follow all prescribed safety procedures.