

Our research aims to uncover the truth and highlight areas of inaccuracy by gathering information on poetry and its issues during the 20th century. We will survey individuals interested in poetry and literature to get their thoughts and discuss their comprehension, breadth, and encounters with literary poetry from the 20th century. Examine his feelings, whether they were human or irrational, and try to comprehend where he was.