The GCS score was reliable as long as it had been obtained prior to intubation and either prior to the initiation of sedating medications or when medications had been paused for the neurological exam.When using the GCS, the nurse utilizes the patient's best response to obtain the score for each section.The nurse notes if the patient opens her eyes when the nurse approaches (scored as 4).

Summarized by © lakhasly.com