

As explained earlier in the report the Peltier square has two sides cold and hot sides, in our assembly we are only using the cold side as our objective is to cool the water, but we can modify the assembly of the cooling system and we could heat and cool the water at the same time which will offer more flexibility to the user.