

EMR (Electronic Medical Record): A digital version of patient records maintained by a single healthcare provider. EHR (Electronic Health Record): A broader system integrating data from multiple providers, supporting sharing and collaboration across healthcare systems.