

Section 9 of the Saudi Labor Law stipulates the right to employ women in Article 194 , taking into account what is stated in Article 4 of this system where women work in all areas that are consistent with their nature, It shall not be permitted to employ women during the night for at least eleven consecutive hours.