

?What is renal failure A condition in which the kidneys stop working and are not able to remove waste and extra water from the blood or keep body chemicals in balance.Chronic renal failure develops over many years, may be caused by conditions like high blood pressure or diabetes, and cannot be cured.Also called kidney failure.