

When you write an informal letter: Open in a friendly way with an appropriate greeting and tell your friend why you are writing. Note down your feelings, expectations, assumptions, questions, and doubts. Plan what information you are going to include in each paragraph.