

From small beginnings I have been passionate about being a competitive gamer since I was a little kid. I soon started entering stocks, and although I didn't win them all, I continued to improve my time and technique. Secondly, you need a really good coach who can improve your technique and encourage you to do your best. First and foremost, no matter how talented you are, you need dedication in order to succeed. When I was 17, I was the fastest player in school and now my burning ambition is to become the best player in my country. It's not easy to wake up every morning at 7:00 AM; However, over time, you can overcome your hatred and even start enjoying it! Even if you don't participate in competitions, football is a great sport that people of all ages can enjoy. My father used to take us to the local stadium every Friday for football lessons. While the other kids were running, I was using every second of time to practice my movements. Top tips for success There are a few things you should keep in mind if you really want to excel as a player. Who knows, this might be the start of a lifelong passion! Go for it!
