

Fluoroscopy With the room prepared and the patient ready, the patient and the radiologist are introduced, and the patient's history and the reason for the examination are discussed