

Raina Petkoff, the daughter of Major Paul Petkoff and Catherine Petkoff, is a twenty-three-year-old woman whose character undergoes a significant evolution throughout the play. As the story unfolds, Raina's role becomes pivotal in shaping the narrative.