

The first week of SEP1, I shadowed with school mentor inside the school every day. I observed majority of students were actively engaged with the exception of one student who I will mention her as (A). I observed a respect-based relationship between teachers and students that paved the way to a safe learning environment. On the fourth day, I asked school mentor to go with her to seventh grade for attends reading lesson.