

This is the first model of the food cart that contains some details that we will put into place so that the initial design aims to visualize the idea of the food cart and is it possible that we will need some of the necessary crisis changes to change it. We also provide this carriage to facilitate ants and private and public events by providing clean, safe and fast food anywhere and anytime..