

oWith mild hemiparesis, loss of normal arm swing and slight circumduction may be the only abnormalities. This is most commonly seen in stroke.