

"I am looking forward to gaining broader and more diverse academic experiences, especially with the presence of various facilities and more experts. Additionally, I want to integrate into a new academic environment and meet new people in order to learn, acquire skills, and develop myself as a student at KFUPM. I aim to leverage my qualifications and strengths to achieve the desired academic results, which KFUPM is known for delivering through its graduates."