1.Research and development: – Allocate resources to continuous improvement and innovation in sensor technology, mobile application features, and overall system functionality.Regulatory Compliance Consultants: – Consult with experts to navigate and comply with healthcare regulations and standards related to medical devices and data protection.User Experience (UX) Designers: – Engage user experience designers to enhance the usability of the mobile application, making it user-friendly and accessible to users.Technological partnerships: – Cooperating with technology companies to develop mobile phone applications, communication protocols, and secure data transfer.Health care professionals: – Building partnerships with doctors and specialists to ensure the accuracy of recorded measurements and provide reliable medical advice based on the data.Sensor manufacturing: – Establishing relationships with manufacturers to produce small sensors for painless insertion and ensuring a constant supply.2.3.4.5.6.7.8.9.10.11.12.

Summarized by © lakhasly.com