

I observed a counselling session where the pharmacist provided medication and lifestyle guidance to the caregiver of a child diagnosed with ADHD.