

In order to guarantee the Program Plan's practicality, attention will be paid to young adults in colleges, universities, and youth centers to cater to their health promotion requirements. Moreover, providing rewards and collaborating with student groups may enhance involvement and drive individuals to stop smoking and adopt lasting lifestyle adjustments. Conducting sessions in both Arabic and English will increase inclusivity and cultural relevance to maximize participation in the UAE.