

The Second Party shall represent the interests of the First Party in dealings with governmental authorities, state agencies, and state-owned enterprises.