

Speed limit restrictions, speed bumps and road delimitation measures will be installed from the beginning of the construction activities and maintained throughout the entire construction duration. Speed bumps will be installed to control the on-site traffic speed, if deemed necessary.