

It is necessary to have an accurate and organized method for submitting and confirming bids for public tender procedures in Kuwait, as bidders must: – They submit their offers according to the conditions specified in the contract to be signed in addition to the advertisement specifications. – After that, the offers submitted by the applying companies are examined. – Each bid is examined by the Central Agency for Public Tenders to ensure its conformity with the requirements stated in the announcement. – selects the best after giving them a comprehensive evaluation.