

During my internship at La Société Studea Consulting in Essaouira, I honed my design skills. My education at EFMC Multimedia Development has enhanced my abilities and enhanced my skill set including Photoshop, video editing, photography and content creation. I have successfully produced numerous publications in English, enhancing my ability to communicate effectively with diverse audiences.