

In this simplified form, we can see that for every tenfold increase in the cation gradient, the membrane potential changes by -0.058 V , or -58 mV .