

Mounting / launching a pop of Jordan to facilitate the trade / 0030 / Amman the first of December (Petra) – Ask formally gate Jordanian trade facilitation, which is considered one of the initiatives of the project " improving the business environment for SMEs through trade facilitation ", which is implemented jointly by the government of Jordan and the International Trade Centre and the German agency for International Cooperation and funded by the German Federal Ministry of Economic Cooperation and the kingdom of the Netherlands, the portal provides all the information related to foreign trade through the presentation of the practical steps necessary import, export and transit of more than 70 products in a manner appropriate to the business, The inclusion of lists of sequentially–arranged contain procedures and documents to be provided in each step also provides the gate bank trade information includes all information that is needed by the following frameworks cool agreements, free trade and rules of origin, and instead of services in addition to many of the other information, and also provide service to the machine to get an answer fast and direct any queries about the requirements and the terms of trade in Jordan in Arabic and English by writing or by voice input Director General of customs of Jordan Major–General Jalal case, Confirmed that the launch of the portal Jordanian trade facilitation comes May the aspirations of the government towards the expansion of the application of the concept of digital transformation of economic sectors, which helps in creating a stable investment climate and improve the competitiveness of Jordanian small and medium enterprises.He pointed out that the completion of this portal represents a qualitative and significant leap towards improving the business environment, raising the competitiveness of Jordanian small and medium–sized companies and promoting the growth of Jordanian exports, explaining that Jordan is the first country in the region to implement such initiatives successfully.ITC project manager Raghad Al–Teli pointed out that the trade facilitation portal is a tool to improve transparency and access to information and enhance cooperation between border control bodies, supports dialogue between the public and private sectors, and is an important tool to review and simplify procedures continuously.