

Complex mechanization is a process where all the main and auxiliary heavy and labor-intensive operations and processes are mechanized with the help of mechanisms, machines and equipment. manual labor can be used only on non-labor-intensive operations that do not reduce the overall pace of the process.