

In 2001, Jarir Bookstore was subjected to a cyber-attack targeting its digital systems and IT infrastructure. The incident occurred at 10:45 p.m. on Thursday, March 15, 2001, when Jarir Bookstore's cybersecurity team noticed unusual activity within the organization's internal network.