

It's a belief system that the animals follow after they overthrow their human owner, Mr. Jones. After Old Major dies, the animals create the Seven Commandments, which are rules based on Animalism. The main idea of Animalism is that all animals are equal and should work together. It teaches that humans are the enemies because they take advantage of animals. Under Animalism, animals should share everything and not let one group control all the resources.