

Slide 27: Results – Solutions "To enhance learning and growth, we propose offering regular workshops and seminars that cover various current topics in modern kinesiotherapy practices and discuss the latest research in the field. These sessions will be conducted by experts and thought leaders in rehabilitation therapy, providing hands-on learning experiences. Additionally, we aim to support staff in achieving advanced certifications by providing access to preparatory courses and study materials, fostering a deeper understanding and enhanced skill set."