

Deputy Project Manager for Construction Equipment Procurement, he is an essential part of ensuring the project succeeds and achieves its objectives.– Supervision of work teams and continuous coordination throughout the duration and integration.Planning and coordination: – Assist in developing a comprehensive, convenient and time–diverse partnership project plan.– And with different work teams (such as procurement, logistics, finance) and successful implementation.Managing diversity and challenges: – Determine the potential light potential of the respective light.– Participate in developing practical experiences for various future projects.– Price composition and necessary adjustments during the implementation stages.4.Communication and supervision: –Communicate with the project manager and executive teams.2.3.5.