

Distance study: The distance study was a beautiful thing because it made the students use electronics more and this showed their creativity in designing lessons to projects. assignments and electronic reports and making communication with students faster, but it also has negatives.