

It was a beautiful experience, the extent of the training before graduation and its increase in the experience and skills I acquired in training, which helped me develop an understanding of practical procedures and gain great experience through field training, which earns him dealing with the various pressures I faced in training, which leads us to increase belonging and motivation to work and reach Success and reach a very high level of performance