

TQM is a continuous process of improvement for the whole organization in which all members participate, building quality into all aspects of process.