

After Kino is attacked and Juana begs him to get rid of the pearl, he responds with this declaration. Certainly, Kino's desire to preserve and sell the pearl has validity: He found the pearl and he deserves all the good the pearl's fair sale can bring him and his family.