The Medina region has the largest shares of these volcanic nests and craters with black rocks..