

```I would talk about how can logistics help Khalid's cake first transportation management planning and executing the movement of goods from the supplier to Khalid's cake and from Khalid's cake to the customer timely and cost-effective transportation reduces delays and ensures fresh cakes reach customers enhancing customer satisfaction second Warehousing storing ingredients and finished products in optimal conditions proper storage maintains the quality and freshness of ingredients and cake, preventing spoilage and waste.